

Practical and Progressive Updates in Primary Care Medicine

Virtual on-demand event available
March 14 through May 12

★ Earn CME credits

beaumont.cloud-cme.com/springprimarycare2025

The following are Confirmed Topics for the 2025 Practical and Progressive Updates in Primary Care Medicine CME conference.

As of January 27, 2025

Topic / Lecture Title	Presenter Name
Chronic Cough/Shortness of Breath	Paul Bozyk, MD
Common Overuse Injuries: Diagnosis, Treatment and Prevention [LARA pain credit]	John Morasso, DO
Conscientious Objection in Health Care [LARA ethics credit]	Abram Brummett, PhD
Food Allergy and Anaphylaxis	Aaron Kobernick, MD
New and Emerging Infectious Diseases, 2025 Edition	Nicholas Gilpin, DO
Outpatient Management of Heart Failure	Douglas Horstmanshof, MD
Pearls and Pitfalls of Managing IBS	Jolian Kathawa, DO
Rheumatology: Common Clinical Manifestations and Interpretation of Diagnostic Studies	Dana Rockwell, DO
Time Saving Principles for Providers	Eric Weitz, DO
Troubleshooting Antidepressants	Jeff Guina, MD
Type New Diabetes Management	Michael Brennan, DO
Updated Evidence-Based Guidelines for Diagnosing and Managing Vaginitis in Nonpregnant Patients	Jenha Dargin, DO
Urgent Care Pearls for the Primary Care Provider	Erwin Patalinghug, MD

Amount of CME credit available will be determined on actual length of recorded lecture and will be known by March 1. It is estimated that approximately 11.0 CME credits will be available for this conference.