CME INFORMATION

Disclosures:

Nothing to disclose

Beaumont Health implemented mechanisms to identify and resolve conflicts of interest for all individuals in a position to control content of this CME activity. All CME staff and content reviewers have no relevant financial relationships with commercial interests to disclose.

Educational Objectives: Those participating in this series should be better able to: 1 Discuss common ethical principles and apply them to common situations that develop in the delivery of health care.
2 Develop skills to improve communication amongst the health care providers, pts, families, etc. to identify when there is a true ethical tension vs miscommunication only.
3 Recognize when there are areas for improvement in policies and procedures and /or situations where polices/procedures may not be fully understand and performed by staff to help prevent ethical concerns in the future.

ACCREDITATION and CREDIT DESIGNATION:

Beaumont Health is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Beaumont Health designates this live activity for a maximum of 1.00 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit(s)[™]. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.
